About This Guide

The Nova Scotia Film Development Corporation (NSFDC) is pleased to present the eighteenth edition of the Nova Scotia Film and Video Production Guide. This book contains essential information and comprehensive listings of companies and individuals involved in the Nova Scotia film, television and commercial industry.

The guide is divided into the following sections: NSFDC; Filming in Nova Scotia – an overview of useful information; Personnel – listed by profession; Producers; Production Companies; Production Services; and Support & Resources. For quick reference the index includes telephone numbers for all personnel listings and there is a separate index for all advertisers in the guide. The listings included in the guide have been limited to a maximum of six credits and may not fully represent the qualifications of individuals or companies listed.

Although every effort has been made to ensure that the information contained herein is correct, the NSFDC cannot guarantee its accuracy nor take responsibility for errors or omissions. No endorsement or quality judgment is implied.

Welcome to Nova Scotia!

On behalf of the province of Nova Scotia I would like to extend a warm welcome to the film and television production teams visiting our province. Your sector is one of the highest growth, highest potential contributors to our province's economy and I'd like to thank those industry leaders who have helped us carve our own niche in what is a very competitive business.

Our reputation as a preferred location for film and television productions is growing. In fact, Nova Scotia has emerged as the fourth largest production centre in Canada. Locations from small towns such as Antigonish, coastal communities such as Lunenburg and unsurpassed vistas such as those found on Cape Breton continue to provide character to a variety of film and television projects. Local crews not only bring a level of professionalism matching your expectations, they bring a hospitality that is unique to the East Coast. As the province that offered one of the first industry tax credits in Canada, the economic climate in Nova Scotia makes production here highly affordable.

Nova Scotia's film industry is at the heart of the province's artistic community. The capabilities and talent of the local production community have resulted in award winning and long running programs on Canadian television. The province's filmmakers have produced some of the most heart-warming, thought provoking and humorous films to be screened in this country. It is a sector whose wealth of creative experience is matched only by it's technical expertise; a sector that has accomplished much, yet whose best days remain ahead.

You don't need to take my word on it, however. Our industry's track record speaks for itself. To those of you who have contributed to this record of success, and who are considering returning to our province, I thank you. To those of you who have yet to partner with us, who are still weighing our advantages as a production location, I encourage you to contact our province's Film Development Corporation for more details on what Nova Scotia can do for you. In the meantime, feel free to review this guide, and see for yourself, the opportunities that exist right here in Nova Scotia.

John F. Hamm

John F. Hamm, M.D., M.L.A.
Premier of Nova Scotia

Welcome to Nova Scotia!

We hope you visit us and have our beautiful province as the setting for your stories. From the rugged coastline to the urban landscape, our locations are sure to capture your imagination.

Nova Scotia is a centre of film excellence. Our local producers are responsible for some of the most successful television programs and films in Canada today. Their achievements have resulted in a strong film network of professional crew and talent as well as suppliers that will ensure your next project is a resounding success.

If you need more convincing, consider your savings on the dollar exchange rate and our tax credits. You can stretch your production budget farther in Nova Scotia, meaning more impact for your money.

So please join the many guest productions that film here each and every year, in the midst of a dynamic and thriving indigenous film industry. We believe your production will thrive here too.

We hope to see you soon!

Sincerely,

Ernest L. Fage

Dear Friends,

Nova Scotia has a vibrant film and television industry. The province boasts spectacular locations, first-class crews, attractive financial incentives, and the infrastructure required to meet all of your production needs. We invite you to visit our beautiful province and see first-hand all it has to offer.

Nova Scotia has hosted such movies as The River King starring Edward Burns, La Veuve de Saint-Pierre starring Juliette Binoche and Daniel Auteuil, The Shipping News starring Kevin Spacey, Judi Dench, Cate Blanchette and Julianne Moore, and K-19: The Widowmaker featuring Harrison Ford and Liam Neeson, to name a few. The province also plays the backdrop for many television movies of the week.

Nova Scotia's film production industry is the fourth largest in Canada, consistently achieving levels in excess of $100 million annually. The crews rate among the best in the country, and its filmmakers are recognized with international awards, including an Oscar in 2003 for producing the Best Documentary Feature, Bowling for Columbine.

Complementing the metropolitan vibrancy of Halifax, the province's capital city, the rest of Nova Scotia offers a quaint charm and relaxing quality of life enjoyed by many visiting film professionals.

At the Nova Scotia Film Development Corporation we value your business and are here to provide seamless service for all your production needs. Our Locations Department is committed to handling your inquiries promptly and efficiently. It is our goal to ensure that you remember your stay in Nova Scotia for all the right reasons.

See you in Nova Scotia!

Nova Scotia Film Development Corporation

The Nova Scotia Film Development Corporation (NSFDC) was established in 1990 with a mandate to grow Nova Scotia's film, television, and new media industries with our partners by stimulating investment and employment and by promoting Nova Scotia's producers, productions, locations, skills and creativity in global markets. The Corporation administers several funding programs available to the indigenous film community and co-production partners, offers location services and support to guest productions to the province, and administers, on behalf of the Nova Scotia Department of Finance, the Nova Scotia Film Industry Tax Credit.

Film Commission Services

As the provincial film commission, the NSFDC provides a range of services and support designed to facilitate the production experience for producers visiting the province including:

FREE SCRIPT BREAKDOWN/LOCATIONS LIBRARY

Complete script breakdown services for film and television projects, including commercials, utilizing our extensive library of locations from across the province. Location image packages can be sent by courier, via e-mail or a personalized website can be created for each production.

SCOUTING

The service of experienced and qualified location scouts is provided to producers and directors who are in province searching for suitable locations.

COMMUNITY LIAISON & ONGOING SUPPORT

Assistance with ongoing location research, information and support as required. We will connect you to local unions, guilds and production personnel, and other contacts throughout the province. In addition, the NSFDC will act as ombudsman and mediator for the industry and the general public.

Locations inquiries and requests should be directed to the Locations Officer.

Funding Programs

These programs are only available to Nova Scotian producers either acting alone or co-producing.

DEVELOPMENT LOANS

The Corporation will provide a loan to qualified Nova Scotian residents or companies to support the process of development that takes an idea for a film or television production through the stages of research, writing, market analysis and costing. Support for the development of a project does not, in any way, guarantee funding by the Corporation in later stages of the project.

EQUITY INVESTMENT

The Equity Investment Program is designed to provide assistance in the form of equity investment to qualified Nova Scotian production companies for the financing of productions.

NEW MEDIA

The Corporation will invest in the production of interactive media including, but not limited to, CD-ROM, DVD or Internet-delivered formats that are educational, entertaining or informational in nature. These projects must be related to television or feature film projects.

TRAVEL ASSISTANCE

The objective of the Travel Assistance Program is to assist Nova Scotian producers with completed film, television, and multi-media projects to develop markets and to assist in the making of professional contacts that may lead to co-production opportunities, which shall bring investment to Nova Scotia. The Corporation will assist eligible applicants with the cost of travel to industry related festivals and events where there is a demonstrated potential to achieve the program objective.

FEATURE FILM DISTRIBUTION ASSISTANCE

The goal of this program is to increase the Canadian box office returns of Nova Scotia produced dramatic, documentary or animated feature films by contributing, in the form of a recoupable advance, to the theatrical release costs of the film.

PARTNERSHIPS IN TRAINING

Through Partnerships in Training, the Nova Scotia Film Development Corporation invests in training initiatives that seek to develop a new generation of filmmakers and to foster skills development at all levels to ensure Nova Scotia's labour force remains competitive. Each year people gain essential experience and new knowledge through these programs

SPONSORSHIPS

Through its Sponsorships program, the Nova Scotia Film Development Corporation provides assistance to established organizations to sponsor activities or events that foster the growth of the film, television and new media industries in Nova Scotia.

CBC/NSFDC BRIDGE AWARD

This award is granted to eligible emerging producers to produce a half-hour or one hour long television production. It is a combination of a regional broadcast license from the CBC, CBC services and an NSFDC equity investment.

For more information on these programs please contact the Program Administrator.

Nova Scotia Film Industry Tax Credit

The Nova Scotia Film Industry Tax Credit is a labour-based incentive designed to encourage productions to employ Nova Scotian film personnel.

The Tax Credit is calculated at 35% of eligible Nova Scotian labour costs for productions that occur in the Halifax region ("Metro Halifax") or 40% of eligible Nova Scotian labour costs for productions that occur in other regions ("Regional Zones") of the province.

Regional Zones of the province are considered to be those locations that are located 30km driving distance or more from Halifax City Hall. For greater clarity, this area is bounded by the Mount Uniacke exit of Highway 101; the Halifax International Airport exit off Highway 102; the Tantallon exit of Highway 103; and the Porters Lake exit off Highway 107. Companies that film 2 productions over a 2 year period will qualify for an additiional 5% bonus tax credit on a third project filmed in that same 2 year period.

The Tax Credit is available to qualifying productions and co-productions produced and/or shot in Nova Scotia. Production companies applying for the Tax Credit must have a permanent establishment in Nova Scotia (a fixed place of business, a production office, a branch etc.) and must be incorporated under the laws of Nova Scotia, another province of Canada, or Canada. At least 25% of salaries and wages must be paid to eligible Nova Scotia employees (resident in Nova Scotia on the last day of the taxation year).

Eligible media include television, cinema, videotape, non-theatrical productions, or interactive websites associated with television or feature film projects. The genre may be drama, variety, performing arts, animated series, informational series, and/or documentary or music programs. There is no limit on the size of the production budget, no corporate or asset cap, and no Canadian content or copyright ownership requirements associated with this Tax Credit. The Nova Scotia Film Industry Tax Credit is not reduced by any other tax credits received by the production.

For more information on the Tax Credit please contact the Director of Finance.

Why
Film in Nova Scotia?
Because...
Great Films Happen Here.

Great Films Happen

Nova Scotia's film industry is a provincial success story. Our indigenous producers have created some of the most popular productions on Canadian television including the cult hit Trailer Park Boys, This Hour Has 22 Minutes and many documentaries, variety specials and series. Successful feature films include Margaret's Museum, Marion Bridge and, most recently, The River King starring Edward Burns. Our producers are skilled in inter-provincial and international co-productions and the provinces investments and incentives assist them in attracting co-production partners. Since 1997, indigenous production contributes between $60-90 million annually to the province's economy.

Word of Nova Scotia's excellence as a filming location is growing. We invite you to experience for yourself:

Spectacular Scenery

From the vibrant city of Halifax to charming small towns, from farming and fishing communities to the wide-open countryside, Nova Scotia can be the setting to your story in four distinct seasons.

Equipped & Accomplished

Sound stages, equipment houses and other support and resources plus crew that are skilled, experienced and committed to the success of your project. Come experience the East Coast difference!

Accessible

The Halifax International Airport is the Atlantic Canadian hub for all domestic, regional and international services. Nova Scotia is accessible from all US and European locations through connecting hubs in several major cities.

Your $ Goes Further

With a favourable exchange rate and competitive federal and provincial tax credits, you will get more for your production budget in Nova Scotia.

About Nova Scotia

Nova Scotia is one of 10 provinces and 3 territories in Canada. It lies on the east coast of the country and is almost completely surrounded by the Atlantic Ocean. There is no place in the province where you are more than 56 kilometers (36 miles) from the sea and with 7,500 kilometers (4,700 miles) of coastline; there are numerous bays and inlets conducive to filming on water.

Nova Scotia is in the Atlantic time zone, which means that our clocks are one hour ahead of Eastern time (New York and Toronto), two hours ahead of Central time (Chicago and Winnipeg) and four hours ahead of Pacific time (Los Angeles and Vancouver).

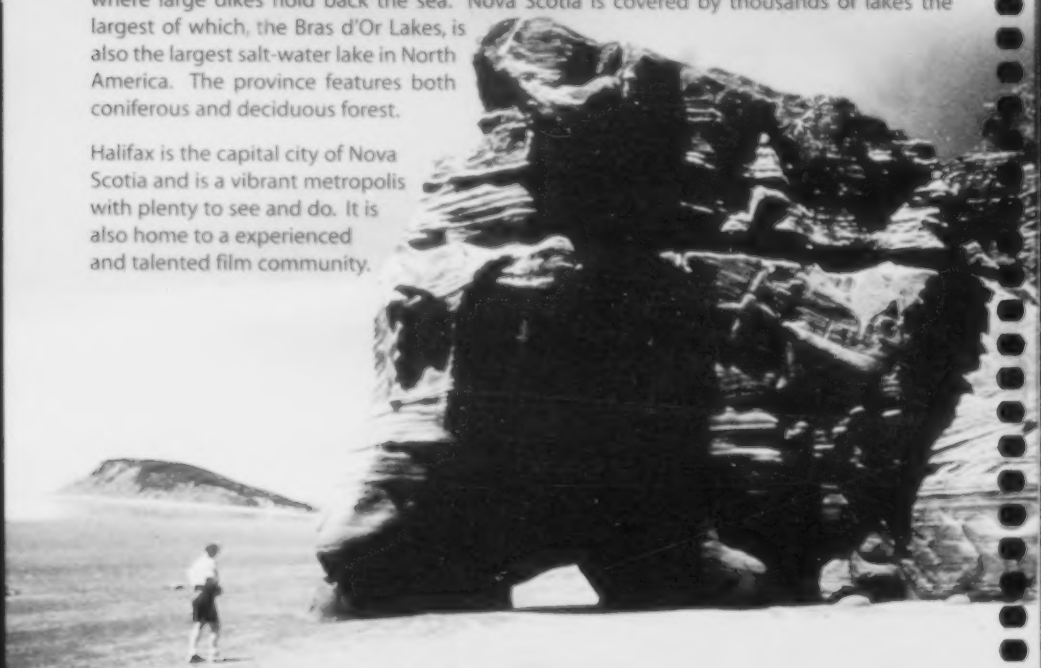
Nova Scotia uses the metric system. Distance and speed limits are measured in kilometers (100 kilometers=60 miles) and kilometers per hour (110 kph=70mph).

Temperature is measured in degrees Celsius. To convert a temperature to Fahrenheit you simply double the temperature in Celsius and add 30. So a temperature of 25 degrees Celsius is 80 degrees Fahrenheit.

Nova Scotia has four distinct seasons. In winter, snow is generally on the ground from December to March. During the autumn months the province's forest offer a spectacular palette of reds, yellows, and oranges. Summer provides lush green backdrops against the deep blues of the Atlantic Ocean.

The highest elevations in the province are found on Cape Breton Island where they may reach up to 500m and the lowest areas in the province are found in the Annapolis Valley, where large dikes hold back the sea. Nova Scotia is covered by thousands of lakes the largest of which, the Bras d'Or Lakes, is also the largest salt-water lake in North America. The province features both coniferous and deciduous forest.

Halifax is the capital city of Nova Scotia and is a vibrant metropolis with plenty to see and do. It is also home to a experienced and talented film community.



Access to Nova Scotia

BY AIR

The Halifax International Airport is the Atlantic Canadian hub for all domestic, regional and international services. Air service into Nova Scotia is available from all Canadian, American and European locations through connecting hubs at major cities. Charter services are also available.

There are three regularly serviced major airports in the province: Halifax, Sydney and Yarmouth. Other smaller airports (some seasonal) and airline telephone numbers are listed in the Guide. See Airports & Airlines (pg. 189-192).

BY SEA

Ferry services are available both into and around the province. Yarmouth, Nova Scotia is connected to Bar Harbour and Portland, Maine from May until October. Nova Scotia is connected to New Brunswick via Digby and Newfoundland via North Sydney by year-round ferry service. Prince Edward Island is connected to Caribou, Nova Scotia by a ferry that operates from May until December.

In the Halifax Regional Municipality, two passenger ferries connect the harbour-side cities of Halifax and Dartmouth. Several other passenger or car ferries connect the mainland to islands off the coast, as well as provide convenient short cuts to destinations throughout the province.

BY LAND

The Trans Canada Highway connects major highways from United States and Canada with Nova Scotia via New Brunswick. A series of well-maintained highways service the major-centres throughout the province. Posted highway speed limits are generally 100 km/h (62mph).

VIA Rail Canada provides transcontinental rail service and has stations in Halifax and Truro, Nova Scotia. Bus service is available into the province and also connects most major communities throughout the province.

Climate

Nova Scotia's climate is largely defined by the sea, which almost entirely surrounds the province. Coastal areas tend to be several degrees cooler than inland locations due to the cooling effect of the Atlantic Ocean and the Bay of Fundy.

Precipitation in the form of rain is generally greater in the fall and winter. About 15% of the province's precipitation comes in the form of snow except at the higher elevations where in can reach 30%. Snow is generally on the ground from December to March. The period from mid-Spring until early summer is thought to be the foggiest. Summer temperatures are generally comfortable and rarely reach extremes. Fresh and saltwater temperatures are most suitable for swimming during July and August. Extreme weather occurrences are rare.

Immigration

Human Resources Skills Development Canada (HRSDC) is the Department that works with the employer to develop a labour market opinion. A positive labour market opinion supports the hiring of a foreign worker for a temporary position in Canada and is one of the requirements that Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC) considers when deciding to issue a work permit.

Further information and an application can be found at the following website:
http://www.hrsdc.gc.ca/en/epb/lmd/fw/entertainment.shtml

It is the responsibility of the employer to consult with the guild/union for their comment regarding the employment of a foreign worker. This letter should be included with the application to HRSDC.

Employers should contact HRSDC as soon as possible. Once an application has been received by HRSDC there is a 15-day service standard. There might be some exemptions from the program and this is assessed once the application has been received.

After HRSDC has determined that a foreign national can fill the job, the employee may apply for a temporary work permit through CIC. This may be done at a visa office located at a Canadian embassy, high commission or consulate. If the worker is a citizen of the United States, they may apply for a temporary work permit at the port of entry. Further information and a list of Canadian embassies, high commissions and consulates can be found at:

Customs

GOODS ENTERING CANADA TEMPORARILY

Goods entering Canada for use in film such as props, costumes, film stock or equipment, may not, under certain conditions, be subject to custom duties and taxes. Generally, goods entering the country temporarily that are not for sale, lease, or are in the country for further manufacturing or processing will qualify for duty-free entry under Tariff 9993.00.00. Depending on the type of film project/activity being done in Canada, temporarily imported goods may only be eligible for partial relief from the 7% Goods & Service Tax (GST). A portion of the value of the goods may be subject to GST.

Qualifying goods may be imported on a temporary admission permit (Form E29B), which can be obtained from the Canada Customs Office. Alternatively, an A.T.A. Carnet can be obtained in the country of origin for items eligible under form E29B. A security deposit equal to the amount of duty and taxes which would be due if the items were imported permanently may be required. This is refunded when proof is provided that the goods have been exported back to the country of origin.

Production companies that may wish to bring goods into Canada should contact the Canada Border Service Agency prior to importation to determine conditions as well as entry requirements, documentation and importers' responsibilities.

For further information please contact:

Income Tax (Withholding)

Under the Canadian Income Tax Act, non-residents who perform independent services behind the scenes on a production in Canada are subject to a withholding tax of 15% of gross income earned in Canada. Non-resident employees working behind the scenes are subject to the same withholding tax as an employee who is a resident of Canada. All non-resident actors performing film or video acting services in Canada are subject to a 23% withholding tax. Payers are required to withhold this amount and remit it regularly to the Canada Revenue Agency.

A waiver or reduction of the normal withholding tax may be requested in certain circumstances. Should you not qualify for a waiver or reduction, your income will be subject to the withholding tax. Once you have completed a Canadian Income Tax Return and your tax liability has been determined, this amount will be applied toward your tax liability, and any refund or additional liabilities will be determined.

For further information or to determine if you qualify for a waiver, please contact:

Harmonized Sales Tax (HST)

The Harmonized Sales Tax or HST is a 15% levy charged on virtually all goods and services purchased in Nova Scotia. HST is charged at the point of sale.

A production company that does not normally carry on business in Canada is entitled to recover the HST paid on goods and services acquired for consumption or use exclusively in the production of a copyright-protected film or television production. All copies of the production must be exported from Canada within 60 days of completion. Storage and shipping costs are not eligible.

Production companies may assign their right to an HST rebate to an HST-registered supplier. In doing so, you may purchase goods and services from this supplier without having to pay the HST. If you do not assign your HST rebate then you must pay the tax at point of sale and apply to Canada Revenue Agency for a rebate. Rebate application forms can be obtained from Canada Revenue Agency.

For further information please consult the publication Doing Business in Canada – GST/HST Information for Non-Residents or the General Application for GST/HST Rebates, both available through Canada Revenue Agency. Contacts for the Canada Revenue Agency can be found in these publications.

Federal Tax Credits

The Federal Government offers two tax credit programs for eligible film and television productions. These programs are co-administered by the Department of Canadian Heritage through the Canadian Audio Visual Certification Office (CAVCO) and the Canada Revenue Agency. The programs include:

FILM OR VIDEO SERVICES TAX CREDIT PROGRAM (PSTC)

Under this program, the federal government provides incentives to stimulate job growth by encouraging Canadians as well as foreign-based film producers to employ the services of Canadians. This refundable tax credit is provided to an eligible production corporation at the rate of 16% of its qualified Canadian labour expenditures, net of any financial assistance, in respect of an accredited production for services rendered in Canada by Canadian residents.

To qualify for the PSTC program, the applicant must be an eligible production corporation that carries on through a permanent establishment in Canada a business that is primarily a film or video production business, or a film or video production services business. Specifically excluded are prescribed labour-sponsored venture capital corporations, tax-exempt corporations and corporations controlled by one or more tax-exempt persons. In addition, the corporation must either own the copyright in the film for which a claim is being made, or have contracted directly with the owner of the copyright, where the owner of the copyright is not an eligible production corporation.

In order to receive the PSTC, an eligible production corporation must obtain an accredited film or video production certificate from the Canadian Audio Visual Certification Office (CAVCO) in respect of an accredited production. The accredited production must meet a cost minimum and it must be of an eligible genre as set out in the proposed Income Tax Regulations (the Regulations). A special rule prevents producers from being able to claim both the Canadian Film or Video Production Tax Credit (FTC) and the PSTC with respect to the same production.

CAVCO and the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) jointly administer the PSTC. CAVCO is responsible for issuing an accredited film or video production certificate with respect to an accredited production. CRA is responsible for providing assistance to claimants, interpreting and applying section 125.5 of the Act and all other provisions in the Act and Regulations that may have an impact on the tax credit, reviewing tax credit claims, assessing T2 Corporation Income Tax Returns, and issuing timely refund cheques.

To apply for the PSTC, an eligible production corporation must complete Form T1177, Claiming a Film or Video Production Services Tax Credit. The certificate issued by CAVCO, or a copy thereof, must be attached to the T2 Corporation Income Tax Return for the year along with Form T1177 (attach these documents to the top of the T2 return for early identification by the CRA).

CANADIAN FILM OR VIDEO PRODUCTION TAX CREDIT (FTC)

Under this program, the federal government provides income tax incentives to qualified corporations for the production of Canadian film or video productions. A qualified corporation can receive the FTC at the rate of 25% of qualified labour expenditure for the production of a Canadian film or video production. The qualified labour expenditure may not exceed 60% of the cost of production at the end of the year net of assistance. The tax credit is therefore limited to 15% of the cost of production net of assistance.

To qualify for the FTC program, the applicant must be a qualified corporation that carries on through a permanent establishment in Canada a business that is primarily a Canadian film or video production business. Specifically excluded are prescribed labour-sponsored venture capital corporations, tax-exempt corporations and corporations controlled by one or more tax-exempt persons. In addition, the qualified corporation must own the copyright in the film for which a claim is being made.

The Canadian Audio-Visual Certification Office (CAVCO) must certify that the production is a "Canadian film or video production". A Canadian film or video production means a film or video production, other than an "excluded production", produced by a "prescribed taxable Canadian corporation" and that is either a treaty co-production or a film or video production that meets the requirements of the Income Tax Regulations (the Regulations).

Co-productions between Canada and another country are eligible for the FTC program only when co-produced under an official treaty. Telefilm Canada is responsible for the certification of treaty co-productions; however, in order to obtain a certificate to access the FTC program, the producer must apply directly to CAVCO.

CAVCO and the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) jointly administer the FTC program. CAVCO is responsible for certifying that the production is a Canadian film or video production, estimating the qualified labour expenditure of a qualified corporation, and issuing certificates to allow Canadian producers to claim the FTC.

CRA is responsible for providing assistance to claimants, interpreting and applying section 125.4 of the Income Tax Act (the Act) and all other provisions in the Act and Regulations that may have an impact on the tax credit, reviewing or auditing the FTC claims within a reasonable time frame, assessing T2 Corporation Income Tax Returns, and issuing timely refund cheques.

To apply for the FTC, a qualified corporation must complete Form T1131, Claiming a Canadian Film or Video Production Tax Credit. The certificate issued by CAVCO, or a copy thereof, must be attached to the T2 Corporation Income Tax Return for the year along with Form T1131 (attach these documents to the top of the T2 return for early identification by the CRA).

ACTRA MARITIMES

ACTRA Maritimes represents over 500 members who live and work as professional performers in film, television and digital media in Nova Scotia. These performers include actors, singers, dancers, voice talent, stunt personnel, choreographers and puppeteers and span all ages, shapes, sizes and ethnicities. Our performers have played leading and principal roles in countless Canadian and international projects - holding their own with stars such as Harrison Ford, Kevin Spacey, Judi Dench and William H. Macy. They have received nominations for (and won!) Genie, Gemini and ACTRA awards. Many of our members are represented by local talent agencies, others are represented by agents in Toronto while still other skilled and experienced performers remain self-represented. Contact our office if you have any questions regarding the engagement of ACTRA talent.

To see our local ACTRA membership, check out ACTRA Maritimes' Talent Directory at:

IATSE 849

Motion Picture Studio Production Technicians, Local 849 of the I.A.T.S.E. is the Union which represents Atlantic Canadian Motion Picture Technicians in the following departments: Animal Wranglers, Costumes, Craft Service, Diving, Greens, Grip, Hair, Lighting, Make-up, Marine, Props, Scenic Paint, Script Supervision, Set Construction, Set Decoration, Sound, Special Effects, Transportation. We are committed to the promotion and sustained growth of the region's motion picture production industry.

Local 849 was granted Charter on January 1, 1990 and along with thirty-nine other Canadian Locals, operates under the umbrella of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees, Moving Picture Technicians, Artists and Allied Crafts of the United States, its Territories and Canada, AFL-CIO, CLC. The International Alliance encompasses four hundred and twenty Locals throughout North America. Although the International's Head Office is located in New York, each Local functions independently. Local 849 utilizes Home Rule through the creation of our Constitution and By-laws and Collective Agreement. These documents set specific procedures, rates and conditions of work within our jurisdiction of the four Atlantic Provinces.

To meet its Objectives, the Local operates in a democratic manner. The initiatives of its representatives are subject to ratification by the membership. Local 849 does not operate on a seniority system and does not maintain a hiring roster. Members are encouraged to actively seek employment.

RBC wins taking the Media and Entertainment business

RBC creates national M&E team

Unlike other banks, our commitment to the entertainment business has never been cancelled.

RBC Royal Bank® has been committed to Canada's media and entertainment industry for over 20 years. And we've never left the business. Because our team of specialists has consistently brought the right blend of expertise, experience and specialized financial services on board. Just ask Laura Lightbown of Haddock Entertainment. (She knows about staying power – Da Vinci's Inquest is in its 7th season). From interim financing to foreign exchange, RBC can help. Expertise that helps you close deals, and get on with the show – it's how we put you first.

Town of Lunenburg

A UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITE

Founded in 1753, Lunenburg's original architecture and streetscapes spanning three centuries have remained intact. Lunenburg has won international recognition as a NATIONAL and UNESCO WORLD HERITAGE SITE and prize filming location for its historic streetscapes and natural setting.

Lunenburg boasts a spectacular waterfront straddling a peninsula with shorelines on two harbours. Its shipbuilding and working harbour contributes to the Town's unique atmosphere. Lunenburg's shipwrights constructed replicas of the Bluenose, H.M.S. Bounty and H.M.S. Rose — the world's largest working wooden tallship.

Lunenburg has proven to be a film friendly Town. It has a vast resource of film locations, skilled film personnel, suppliers and Nova Scotia's most experienced boat wranglers.

Some of the Town's film credits include Shattered City, Blue Moon, A Town Without Christmas, Sea People, A Rumor of Angels, Simon Birch, Dolores Claiborne, Two if by Sea, and The Little Kidnappers, numerous television advertisements and documentaries.

Excellent production facilities, dining, lodging and other amenities are available in Lunenburg to meet your filming needs. Lunenburg is a short drive to Halifax and the International Airport making it an excellent film base.

The Town of Lunenburg is the recent winner of: Port City of the Year; Communities in Bloom; Prettiest Painted Places in Canada; and the Society of American Travel Writers Award.

ONLY FILM SEES THE WAY YOU DO.
You see it. More importantly, you feel it. It's the difference 10 times more resolution makes in portraying nuance and detail. And it's the way film's organic structure sees like the human eye—not like a machine. So there's nothing between you and your audience.

Make your story one to remember. Visit www.kodak.com/go/kcimotion or call 1-800-621-FILM (3456).
